

NEUTRIK sponsoring the LieGames 2011

Schaan, 09th May 2011. Neutrik provides numerous products on large sport or music events. At the LieGames 2011 we take over the patronage for the beach volleyball competition in addition.

«It's the second time that Liechtenstein will host the Games of the Small States in Europe and we're very delighted to be part of it. Sports, fun and the related health aspect are important components of the corporate culture of Neutrik AG. Therefore we're very proud to take over the patronage of the beach volleyball competition during the LieGames 2011,» Marketing Director Christian Söhnel.

Neutrik focuses on innovative solutions of superior quality and has been successful with this philosophy for more than 35 years.

Neutrik is the worldwide leading supplier of professional connectors and connector systems for the entertainment industry and other complex special applications. For decades the name Neutrik has been synonymous with the development, production and distribution of innovative products with superior quality.

No matter whether a rock band or a lighting designer, an industrial application or a broadcast studio – Neutrik offers a high quality and reliable connector solution for every application.
